W. H. Taft.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JAMES S. SHERMAN.

FOR CONGRESS, HON. HARRY BAILEY.

SENATOR BRADLEY SAID AT LEXINGTON—

"I understand that the Democrats opened their campaign in this city on September 19, and I see from the papers that there were 30,000 Democrats here and only 27,000 gallons of soup. During Grover Cleveland's administration there were many more thousand hungry Democrats who had to feed on soup. I am very glad that the Democrats opened their State campaign in Lexington again this year, for when they opened it here in 1908, the State at the ensuing election went Republican by 18,000 majority."

"And now, my friends, I call your attention to the fact that notwithstanding the bitter abuse of President Taft by Colonel Roosevelt in his late campaign for the nomination in which he denounced Mr. Taft without stint, accusing him of everything that was corrupt and saying that he was mistaken in his opinion expressed of Mr. Taft before his election, he said in a speech made September 27th, 1910, at the New York Saratoga convention, long after the actions of Mr. Taft, which he now so severely condemns:

"During the last eighteen months a long list of laws, embodying legislation most heartily to be commended as combining wisdom with progress, have been enacted by Congress and approved by President Taft. The amendments to the interstate commerce law, beginning of a National legislative program for the exercise of the taxing power in connection with big corporations doing an interstate business; the appointment of a commission to frame measures that do away with the evils of over-capitalization, and of improper and excessive issues of stocks and bonds; the law providing for publicity of campaign expenses; the establishment of maximum and minimum tariff provisions and the exceedingly able negotiations of the Canadian and other treaties in accordance therewith; the inauguration of the policy of providing for a disinterested revision of tariff schedules through a high-class commission of experts which will treat each schedule purely on its own merits, with a view both to protecting the consumer from excessive prices and to secure the American producer, and especially the American wage workers, that which will represent the difference of cost of production here as compared with the cost of production in countries where labor is less liberally rewarded; the extension of the laws regulating safety appliances for the protection of labor; the creation of a bureau of mines—these, and similar laws, backed up by executive action, reflect high credit upon all who succeeded in putting them in their present shape upon the statute books; they represent an earnest of the achievement which is yet to come; and the beneficence and far-reaching importance of this work done for the whole people measure the credit which is rightly due to the Congress and to our able, upright and distinguished President William Howard Taft."

If a certificate of good character from Colonel Roosevelt is worth anything, this should be amply sufficient.

THE DOWNTRODDEN FARMER.

Even in these prosperous times who but a Western farmer could afford to charter a special car and take his forty five relatives on a trip to California? William Holden had in 800 acres of wheat and told his relatives that if it went to 20 bushels to the acre he would take them all to the Pacific Coast. His wheat yielded 28 bushels to acre. After selling the crop for $21,850 he paid the bet. The whole outfit left Hutchinson the other day for a month's sojourn on the coast at the expense of Farmer Holden.—Kansas City Journal.

THE DIFFERENCE.

Don't let any workingman fail to understand the political situation. Don't let any business man make the mistake of voting for something he didn't expect or want.

There is a difference between the Republican and the Democratic platforms that every workingman and business man should know. Here it is. Read the platforms for yourself.

The Republican platform declares for a continuance of the protective tariff; the Democratic platform declares against a protective tariff and in favor of a tariff for revenue only.

Everybody does not understand what this means, but everybody should, because the failure to understand this difference in 1893 closed a great many factories, cut down wages all along the line, put thousands out of employment and opened a good many soup-houses.

The tariff of 1893 was the Wilson tariff, fathered by Professor Wilson, a Virginia college professor. The tariff recommended by the Democratic platform this year is supported by another able and eminent college professor also named Wilson coming from New Jersey.

We never knew of a tariff platform prepared by college professors that did not result in injury to the workingmen and business of the country. Put one of these college Professors behind the merchant's counter and see how he would run the business. Put him in the shop, or at the bench, and see if he could fill a workingman's place.

The difference between a protective tariff and a tariff for revenue is this: A protective tariff is, as its name implies, a tariff high enough to protect the American wage schedule and the American shop from the intrusion of the cheaper foreign labor or the products of the cheaper foreign shop. President McKinley explained this and the workingmen and business men of the country understood him and supported him.

The Democratic platform declares that we have no constitutional right to protect the American wage-earner or the American shop or the American manufacturer by putting a tax on the products of foreign labor and that the only excuse for this tax is because we must levy it to secure the revenues to support our government.

The difference between the Democratic and Republican view of the tariff question is clear. The workingmen and business men of the country are not so thick-headed that they can not understand it.

We are for any candidate who stands for the protection of American wages and American prosperity. We are against any candidate who is a free trader or who leans that way.—Leslie's Weekly.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound in your ears, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MRS. MARY BARLOW TRIMBLE
Tuesday's Enquirer.

The death of Mrs. Mary Barlow Trimble, wife of the late Judge W. W. Trimble of Lexington at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Grace Packler Ludlow, of New York City, removes one of Kentucky's most prominent women, both in the social and literary world. Notwithstanding she had passed four score years, her love of information upon all the leading topics of the day was phenomenal. She was an ardent suffragist. She was versed in the political issues; theological questions she discussed freely, and it was interesting to hear her ideas of new cults, "ismas," &c. Her pride was gratified when her daughter's (Mrs. Kate Trimble Woolley) book, "Women vs. Republics," created such a furor. She read even the criticisms, and her fine mind grasped the point that all subjects worthy of public discussion were valuable. Her elegant home has been thrown open for many brilliant functions, and few hostesses have entertained more notable men and women. Her children loved her with marked reverence and devotion. She leaves a host of loyal friends, and was the honored guest in the most prominent homes in the three cities. Her generosity has blessed homes and relieved suffering humanity. Beloved and honored she has passed to the Great Beyond with a life replete with noble acts, and kindly courtesies. Such an old age is as sublime in its beauty as a glorious setting sun, whose departing rays cast golden tints on all it surrounds.
